

YuHua Chen

DIRECTOR OF
LEGAL SERVICES

PROFESSIONAL BIO

YuHua Chen became Director of Legal Services at the Women's Resource Center to End Domestic Violence in 2025, after a decade of dedicated service as a Legal Advocate. Since joining WRCDV in 2015, YuHua has supported thousands of survivors of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault, assisting them with filing Temporary Protective Orders (TPOs), navigating the legal system, and finding safety through survivor-centered advocacy.

In her role as Director, YuHua oversees WRCDV's legal advocacy program, supervising a team of legal advocates and ensuring grant compliance. She provides advocacy and mediation in court hearings, leads trainings on trauma-informed advocacy, and facilitates WRCDV's legal clinic, expanding access to justice for survivors in civil cases.

Before her career in advocacy, YuHua practiced law in Taiwan, where she was admitted to the bar in 2007. She also brings extensive experience in teaching and research, having served as a graduate instructor and research assistant at Emory University's Department of Economics and Rollins School of Public Health.

YuHua holds dual bachelor's degrees in Economics and Financial Law from National Taiwan University and a Master of Arts in Economics from Emory University. Fluent in English, Mandarin, and Taiwanese, with additional proficiency in Japanese and Korean, she brings a global perspective to her work with survivors.

Throughout her career, YuHua has combined her legal expertise with a deep commitment to trauma-informed, client-centered advocacy. Her leadership continues to strengthen WRCDV's ability to help survivors understand and exercise their legal rights.

GET IN TOUCH

Email: yuhua@wrcdv.org

Phone: (404) 370-7670

Website: www.wrcdv.org